Project itinerary

Every day will vary according to the activities planned and the needs of the little ones you'll be looking after! The volunteer project is very flexible based on the needs of the volunteer teachers at the kindergarten, but you can expect to work for 3-4 hours a day from morning till early afternoon. A typical day will involve brushing the children's teeth in the morning, teaching English and assisting staff with any tasks required.

Mandatory Orientation Day

On the first day of your Kindergarten Volunteer project here in Cajamarca, you will join our orientation day, to get accustomed to your surroundings and local culture. Your programme will continue as usual from Tuesday onward throughout the rest of the week.

Orientation Day Schedule

- Introduction meeting, House rules, Setting Expectations, Health and Safety Advice and handling of documents.
- Peruvian Do's and Don'ts, Peruvian Culture Lessons and Spanish Language Lessons.
- Tour around the compound and local area; where to find local shops, and arrange a sim-card if necessary.
- Lunch
- Small hike to 'white crosses hill' where you can have Thermal Baths in Banos (Optional) and a

Evenings and Weekends

Your evenings and weekends are free to do as you wish, either relaxing back at the volunteer accommodation with other volunteers or travelling further afield and exploring Peru with your new friends.

Please note: This schedule can be changed and/or amended depending on weather conditions, local conditions and unforeseen circumstances.

Places to Visit

There's so much more here in Peru than surfing! In and around Chiclayo there a wealth of places and sights that our volunteers usually visit on weekends that lets you explore Peru away from the mainstream tourist routes. Even if you stay in Peru for a few months, you won't run out of astonishing places to visit!

Bosque de Pomac

Visit the world's largest dry forest just north of Chiclayo. Besides Peru's oldest tree it also hides pyramids of the Sican culture. The attentive visitor can easily spot leftovers of antique ceramics or even bones along the walkways. Combine the visit with a horseback ride to get the most out of it.

Huaca Rajada

Some of the world's most extraordinary tombs, place of discovery of the "Lord of Sipan", also known as the “King Tutankamon of the Americas”. Most of the treasures found in the tombs are now displayed in the museum Tumbas Reales, but still the site is definitely worth a visit.

Chan Chan

World’s largest adobe city.

Chan Chan not only used to be America’s biggest city but also was and still is the world’s largest city built of adobe – sun-dried mud-bricks – with walls as high as 12 meters, being home for about 60.000 inhabitants. Since it was conquered by the Inkas, its extension declined to about 20 square kilometres, of which only a few parts are actively restored. As this impressive place is endangered by the more and more frequently occurring El Niño storms, consider visiting it soon.

Pimentel

At this seaside tranquil town where you can sunbathe, visit beautiful sandy beaches and engage in surfing to your heart’s content.

Weekend trips

Cajamarca

Famous for its colourful carnival and as the place where the Inca Empire came to an end, Cajamarca and its surroundings keep you busy for a whole weekend and invite you to come back. Visit the old town, Ventanillas de Otuzco – pre-Inca grave caves carved into a vertical rock – or just soak in the hot thermal baths “Baños del Inca”.
